

Women of the Word

Key Verses to Memorize:

Now therefore, thus says the Lord of hosts, "Consider your ways! You have sown much, but harvest little; you eat, but there is not enough to be satisfied; you drink, but there is not enough to become drunk; you put on clothing, but no one is warm enough; and he who earns, earns wages to put into a purse with holes."

~Haggai 1:5-6

Thus has the Lord of hosts said, "Dispense true justice and practice kindness and compassion each to his brother; and do not oppress the widow or the orphan, the stranger or the poor; and do not devise evil in your hearts against one another."

~Zechariah 7:9-10

"Behold, I am going to send My messenger, and he will clear the way before Me. And the Lord, whom you seek, will suddenly come to His temple; and the messenger of the covenant, in whom you delight, behold, He is coming," says the Lord of hosts.

~Malachi 3:1

General Suggestions & Tips

- Schedule an appointment each day to read God's Word.
- Begin with prayer and ask the Lord to speak to you through His Word today.
- Read your Bible with a notebook and pen beside you. Jot notes, circle words, and ask questions.

As you read this month

- Read today's scripture passage.
- Jot down your observations. Ask questions. Who are the people in each chapter? What are they doing? Where are they?
- Look for points of personal application. How is God speaking to your heart through His written Word?
- Continue to write down prayer requests, answers, and praises. In the coming months you will be blessed and greatly encouraged by God's answers to prayer as well as the changes in your own heart and life.
